Golden Ticket Promotion

The Giving Institute Annual Summer Symposium brings members together to learn, share, and network. Come join us as we discuss best business practices and current trends in philanthropy! Our Golden Ticket promotion allows up to 10 potential members to attend our Summer Symposium for a discounted price. This is a great opportunity to get to know our members and experience first-hand what a great impact The Giving Institute can have on you and your organization.

♥ Become a Member

The Giving Institute consists of member organizations that embrace and embody the core values of Community, Excellence, and Diversity & Inclusion while advancing generosity. Our vision is simple: We want to develop extraordinary leaders in the world of philanthropy. Everything we do is designed to help elevate the non-profit services industry and enhance the philanthropic sector, all while advancing your own career.

♥ Do You Qualify for Membership?

The Giving Institute's members are for-profit entities or nonprofit subsidiaries of for-profit businesses. They have been in business for at least three years and 90% or more of their business portfolio is focused on nonprofit clients and advancing the mission of those organizations. Members must also adhere to our Ethical Principles.

♥ Commitment to Diversity & Inclusion

The Giving Institute is committed to fostering a diverse, equitable, and inclusive community rooted in generosity. Member firms acknowledge the rich traditions of generosity spanning various countries, faiths, and cultures, while also recognizing emerging forms of generosity. We embrace individual lived experiences and unite in our commitment to fostering a generous community through client work, thought leadership, strategic research, and a diverse membership.

♥ Benefits of Membership

Learning, skill building, and professional development through symposia and educational programs tailored to the nonprofit service professional.

Opportunities for networking and mentoring with member organizations of all sizes and in all major markets serving the US, Canada, and philanthropic communities worldwide. These formal and informal connections help you grow your business and have led to joint venture opportunities among member organizations.

Giving USA Insider's access to the researchers and editorial board, putting member firms one step ahead with reliable analysis of giving patterns and trends. Your organization can use this research to identify unseen opportunities and create a dynamic strategy for your clients.

Opportunity to influence public opinion, legislation, standards of practice, ethical codes, and other elements providing direction to the industry and changing the course of giving across our country and worldwide.
